AROUND CHICAGO

Van Gogh's Bedroom Exhibit, Art Institute of Chicago—Thru May 10, 2016

"Vincent van Gogh's bedroom in Arles is arguably the most famous chamber in the history of art. It also held special significance for the artist, who created three distinct paintings of this intimate space from 1888 to 1889.

This exhibition—presented only at the Art Institute of Chicago—brings together all three versions of The Bedroom for the first time in North America"

(Art Institute of Chicago).
